1. Introduction to Django

- What is Django?
  - Django is a high-level Python web framework that allows rapid development of secure and maintainable websites.
  - It follows the MVC (Model-View-Controller) architectural pattern, called MTV (Model-Template-View) in Django.
- Why Django?
  - Rapid development (DRY principle - Don't Repeat Yourself)
  - Built-in admin panel
  - Secure (prevents SQL injection, XSS, CSRF)
  - Scalable and extensible
  - Large community and many reusable packages

2. Setting Up Django Environment

Prerequisites

- Python installed (3.8+ recommended)
- Pip package manager
- Virtual environment (recommended to isolate projects)

Suggest what I should include on my LinkedIn cover banner to make it professional, clear, and impactful.
Based on my answers below, give:
Main headline
3–4 supporting points/value propositions
CTA (if needed)
Color/style suggestion
My details:
What is your role, business, or area of expertise?
Who is your target audience or ideal client/employer?
What is the main result or value you help people achieve?

Act as a LinkedIn branding expert. Write one LinkedIn headline (15–20 words) using this format:

• First 8 words: conversational, curiosity-driven, or proof-based (number, milestone, or "I help…").

• Add exactly 3 industry keywords. Frame them to clearly show what I do, for whom, and the result I deliver. Include metrics or outcomes if experienced. Keep it clear, human, and skimmable. Avoid buzzwords.

Note- Please ask 5 highly relevant question which will help you to write a perfect converting LinkedIn profile headline for me

And come up with at least 3 different options.

Use my uploaded selfie as reference. Keep my face, facial features, expression, skin texture, and hairstyle exactly the same. Do not change my look.
Change only the outfit to a highly professional business outfit (tailored blazer, solid neutral color).
Improve lighting to soft, studio-style professional lighting.
Adjust pose to a professional head-and-shoulders LinkedIn portrait with confident, natural posture.
Use a clean, minimal, premium background.
Make it look like a real professional photoshoot, ultra-realistic and LinkedIn-appropriate.
